

Chinese Swine Delegation to Visit US - Local Companies

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 2018 – ONALASKA, WI – A delegation of pork industry professionals from China will visit businesses in the U.S. next week in conjunction with the World Pork Expo in Des Moines Iowa, held June 6-8. The focus of their visit will be to learn about aspects of the US pork industry and methods of pork production in comparison with their own.

Along with attending the Expo, the Chinese delegation will visit several pig farms and equipment suppliers in Iowa, Illinois, and Wisconsin. One pig production operation they will visit is operated and managed by Waukon Feed Ranch in Waukon, Iowa. They will also visit three global suppliers to livestock production: L.B. White Co., LLC, an industry leading global manufacturer of heating solutions and heating systems for the agricultural, horticultural, industrial, construction, and special event / party tent rental industries in Onalaska, Wisconsin; the GSI Group, LLC, a world class manufacturer of grain storage, material handling, conditioning and drying equipment, as well as a full line supplier of swine and poultry production equipment headquartered in Assumption, IL; and Hog Slat, Inc., the largest contractor and manufacturer of hog equipment in the U.S., at their Humboldt, Iowa location. The delegation is comprised of individuals representing the following Chinese companies: New Hope Liuhe Co., Twins Group, Huanshan Group, Sichuan Dekang Husbandry Company, Hunan Paper Mulberry Agri-Tech Development Company, Anhui Delin Farm Management Company, and Guangdong Nanmu Company (a Wens Group company).

###

CONTACT: L.B. White Company, marketing@lbwhite.com

Source: L.B. White Company